Welcome
CHRIS CORBIN-PRICE ’83, PRESIDENT, WESTBROOK COLLEGE
ALUMNI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

AUGUST 2018

Chris Corbin-Price ’83

WELCOME
On behalf of the Westbrook College Alumni Board of Directors and the Office of Alumni Advancement, welcome to the Tower Alumni Newsletter!

Although we all have many unique college experiences and memories, we all hold Westbrook in a special part of our hearts. This is what bonds us as Westbrook Junior College and Westbrook College alumni. I hope that this bond – and your pride – is further strengthened as you flip through these pages. Perhaps it will even feel reminiscent of past Tower yearbooks, full of your favorite traditions, accomplishments and, best of all, your Westbrook family members.

This year the Westbrook alumni community supported the university in so many meaningful ways - by attending events on campus, by reconnecting with classmates to celebrate milestone reunions, by giving generously to student scholarships and important fundraising initiatives – the list goes on!

Each of these efforts, no matter how big or small, contribute to the life of the University of New England. And what’s more, they strengthen the Westbrook legacy.

I know the things I love most about Westbrook will always be part of the University of New England. It’s apparent in the eager students who are full of potential, the passionate professors who teach with great care, the professional staff members who are committed to the life of the university, and in you - the generous donor, the engaged volunteer, the proud Westbrook alum.

With lots of pride and gratitude,

Christina Corbin-Price ’83
President, Westbrook College Alumni Board of Directors
INAUGURATION OF JAMES D. HERBERT, PH.D.

The University of New England hosted the inauguration of James Herbert, Ph.D., the sixth president of the university on Saturday, September 9, 2017, at 11 a.m. on the Biddeford Campus.

Herbert came to UNE from Drexel University in Philadelphia, where he served as executive vice provost and dean of the Graduate College. He replaced Danielle Ripich, who retired in June of 2017, as UNE’s president.

Attendees of the inauguration included Senator Susan Collins and other elected officials, delegates from various colleges and universities, UNE board members, faculty, professional staff, alumni, and students. A number of Westbrook Junior College and Westbrook College alumni were included among the guests, including Trustees Diane Collins Field ’81 ’85 and Katherine Heer ’90, DMD.
PRESIDENT HERBERT’S LISTENING TOUR

During the first year of his tenure, President James Herbert hit the road to host a variety of events across the country. During the tour, President Herbert heard from alumni, friends, and family of Westbrook Junior College, Westbrook College, St. Francis College, and the University of New England. The resulting conversations and insight provided a full perspective of the UNE family and helped inform the elements of the new strategic plan.

To guide the discussion, President Herbert addressed three overarching questions and encouraged audience members to share their own stories:

1. Why did you choose Westbrook College, UNE, or St. Francis College?
2. What about this place makes you the most proud?
3. What do you hope for the future of UNE?

In total, over 75 alumni, parents, friends, prospective students and their families attended the first five events of President Herbert’s UNE Listening Tour, including the following 19 of your fellow Westbrook Junior College and Westbrook College alumni:

50 YEARS OF NURSING

We are delighted to celebrate 50 years of nursing education at the University of New England! From the Westbrook Junior College Class of 1967 to the UNE Class of 2017, we honor a legacy of excellence: experienced and knowledgeable nursing faculty who have educated generations of compassionate and professional clinicians who provide the highest possible level of wellness to individuals and families and who become healthcare leaders in their communities. As we reflect on how far Nursing at UNE has come, we also look to the future and the nurses who will continue to shape the direction of the profession.

- Jennifer Lee Morton ’83, DNP, MPH, APHN-BC, Director of Nursing

EVENTS

Trustee Dr. Katherine Heer ’90 with President Herbert at the Deborah Morton Society Convocation.

Deborah Morton Society member and Westbrook alum Donna Litchfield Cheney ’62 with society members Bridget Healy and Barbara Morris Goodbody at the luncheon prior to the 2018 induction, in Alumni Hall.

Deborah Morton Society member Gilda Nardone ’68 at the 2018 Deborah Morton Society luncheon.

Rebecca “Becky” Woodward Kaufman ’78 met with Alumni Advancement staff member Tim von Stetten to plan for her 40th class reunion.

VP of Strategic Initiatives Ellen Beaulieu, HA ’96, Jerry Brown Wax ’83, Westbrook College Alumni Board of Directors President Chris Corbin-Price ’83, Westbrook College Alumni Board of Directors Vice President Kathy Bascom-Rich ’78, and Louise Haines Maxfield ’82.

Geraldine “Gerry” Horsman Mattson ’53 visited campus in July with members of her family, including her three children and granddaughter. She shared memories of her time as a student at WJC as well as her years serving as a Trustee. She also had the opportunity to ring the Tower Bell!
COMMENCEMENT

On May 19th, 2018, UNE celebrated as over 1,800 students received their degrees and certificates in osteopathic medicine, dental medicine, pharmacy, health sciences, natural sciences, human services, education, management and the liberal arts. Additionally, we saw several familiar faces as many Westbrook alumni watched their own children and grandchildren make the momentous transition from student to alumni of their shared alma mater.

Dennis Harris and Anne Bishop Harris, WC ’83, the proud parents of Ethan Harris ’18, who graduated cum laude.

“It was very exciting and rewarding to have three generations of Westbrook/UNE graduates in our family. We all have fond memories of our years there and the friends we have made.” - Joan Bagely Della Torre, WJC ’55 pictured with her granddaughter, Edie Pallozzi ’18, and Joan’s daughter, Cynthia DellaTorre Pallozzi, WC ’87.

“Catherine’s years at UNE have been filled with wonderful experiences which have enlightened her, academics which have challenged her and fantastic people who have enriched her. It’s so good to know that the tradition of Westbrook lives on. I’m a proud and happy mom and alum.” - Paula Mills Lamb, WC ’80 with her daughter Catherine Lamb ’18.

MAROON AWARD

Marking the 183rd ceremony, the Maroon Award was presented to two special students. Inspired by Westbrook’s legacy, the award is given to students who serve as a role models to others, demonstrate high academic standards, superior leadership qualities, collaborative working relationships, and demonstrated service to improve the quality of life for others.

Catherine Flaherty Lamson ’78, ’04 was recognized with the Tower Award for Alumni Achievement for her ongoing commitment to mentorship, civic engagement and the advancement of women into leadership roles.

Catherine is the Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer at MEMIC, and as a graduate of the Institute for Civic Leadership, she remains highly engaged in the community, serving on the Board of the Olympia Snowe Women’s Leadership Institute and the Center for Grieving Children. She is also the president of the Dorcas Society of Hollis & Buxton, a local philanthropic group, and is the State of Maine Chair for the national Million Women Mentors movement and a sponsor of the Women in Insurance group with a mission to advance the careers of women in the insurance industry.

Gail Barlow Courville ’68 was recognized with the Heloise E. Withee ’40 Alumni Service Award.

After graduating from Westbrook, Gail traveled and practiced clinical dental hygiene and public health for 40 years. She opened the first proprietary home health agency in New Hampshire, providing round-the-clock in-home care which became a new standard in home health care protocol.

Now retired, Gail’s family residence in Virginia, Serenity Farm, hosts retreats and workshops for healers, spiritual teachers, seekers and artists. As a steward of 109 acres of land and the healing center, Gail is dedicated to the cultivation of a spiritual environment that enriches and allows a peaceful place to connect with one’s authentic self.

Gail could not be present in person to accept her award but sent us a wonderful video that was played at the ceremony.

Elizabeth “Babs” Babbott Conant was recognized as an Honorary Westbrook Alumni, in recognition of her long career in academia, commitment to activism and mentorship of students.

In 1954 Elizabeth served as a faculty member for Westbrook Junior College, teaching a challenging zoology course. Although Elizabeth’s time as a faculty member at WJC was short, she had a lasting impact on Westbrook students – building relationships as a mentor that last to this day.

Throughout her life Elizabeth has been a steadfast activist, advocating for equality for the gay and lesbian community, practicing civil disobedience to protect civil liberties and working to change attitudes about war and aggression. We admire her lifelong commitment to peace and learning.

ALUMNA GIVING TO BEAUTIFY THE CAMPUS SHE Cherishes

Patricia Hayden Langlin WJC ’44 has designated a major gift to the University of New England to establish the Patricia Hayden Langlin ’44 and George Brazil Fund, an endowment for the continued beautification and maintenance of the Portland Campus. “I was so pleased to make this gift to support UNE’s comprehensive campaign, UNE Moving Forward to ensure that the campus will always look and be its best for the students. If George were alive today, he would be thrilled to see the incredible strides UNE has made on the old Westbrook College campus. It’s truly wonderful!”

LEAVE A LASTING LEGACY

One sentence in your will can make a lifetime of difference. To leave a gift in your will, simply share this sentence with your attorney or financial planner:

“I bequeath $_____ or _____% of my estate to the University of New England, 716 Stevens Avenue, Portland, ME 04103.”

Communicating your intentions with us automatically includes you as a distinguished member of the Heritage Society, which honors alumni and friends whose deferred gifts help to ensure the continued excellence of the University of New England. Won’t you create your legacy today?

Contact Mark LaFrance, Major & Planned Giving Officer at (207) 221-4379 or mlafrance2@une.edu
THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW ENGLAND IS PROUD TO RECOGNIZE the Alumni of Westbrook Junior College and Westbrook College who made gifts to the Annual Fund for the fiscal year ending May 31, 2017. Your gifts transform students’ lives. Please accept our thanks on their behalf.

A FAMILY LEGACY

Mary Szumita Aube ’88 ’96 and Tim Aube ’90 met as students at Westbrook College, where Mary studied Dental Hygiene and Tim studied Computer Information Systems. They married in 1992 and today live in Gorham, Maine and have four daughters - Molly, 25, Kelly and Sally, both 19, and Maggy, 17.

Today Tim is an Assistant Vice President at UnumProvident and Mary serves as the Assistant Program Director of Clinical Education and an Assistant Clinical Professor for UNE’s Dental Hygiene Program.

Together, they reflect on their Westbrook College education, and the ways in which the Westbrook legacy continues as two of their daughters attend UNE.

The connections made with friends and professors made the Westbrook experience unique.

Tim: Although it was perceived as a small, quiet college, we had a great circle of friends and always had fun. I met my future wife, got involved in student government, gained academic confidence, gave a speech on commencement day, and eventually became part of the Alumni Board of Directors.

Mary: I met lifelong friends including my roommate Kim L’Heureux, Lynda Judge DiPhilippo, Amanda Tripp Woodford, Patty Duranleau Chamard, Tom Aube, and of course my husband of 26 years Tim Aube.

As the Westbrook campus has evolved, much stays the same.

Tim: I love how the college has continued to grow and evolve. I love driving by the campus on Stevens Avenue, and seeing the new buildings! They’ve done a tremendous job blending the new and modern buildings with those that have been there for over a century. I also like how they’ve diversified their curriculums and have a long term plan for growth and continued success.

Many of the traditions, awards, and ceremonies still exist. I went to the pinning and graduation for Molly, and smiled when they announced the Deborah Morton Award and the Maroon Cup. They have moved into the 21st century, but kept many of the important ties to the past.

Mary: Even though the Dental Hygiene clinic has been renovated several times, the experience is the same. Our Dental Hygiene program is unique compared to other DH programs. At UNE, the students do not need to find their own patients, as our clinic has been running for over 52 years and has a large patient pool. The clinic is now computerized and each unit has a desktop for patient information, and radiographs are digital.

I always reflect back on the education I received from the DH faculty. I work with many of the same faculty. I try to emulate the caring and personal nature of the faculty and have been part of many WCHP committees that have discussed the traditions of the Westbrook College legacy.
Though the Westbrook students change from year to year
And new voices are raised in halls we hold so dear
The Westbrook Tower stands just as it did in days gone by
And the spirit of Westbrook will never, never die.
