Information Literacy Digital Badge via UNE Library Services:

UNE Library Services now offers an information literacy digital badge through UNE's Credly and Blackboard sites. Encourage your students to earn this badge to strengthen the quality of their work throughout their time at UNE and beyond by developing their skills and habits of mind related to source evaluation and information literacy (as described by ACRL's Framework for Information Literacy in higher education <http://www.ala.org/acrl/standards/ilframework>).

Badge Content on Blackboard

Learners earning this badge will:

- Demonstrate proficiency and knowledge of search skills; formulate a research question and formulate and execute a research strategy.
- Critically appraise the authority of information creator while remaining skeptical of the systems that evaluated that authority.
- Demonstrate proficiency in evaluation of resources used for research using the CRAAP (currency, accuracy, authority, relevance and purpose) method.
- Contribute to scholarly conversation at the appropriate level.
- Demonstrate proficiency in proper citation: applying appropriate citation style to research resources.

Interested potential badge earners should get in touch with librarians Sonya Durney, Cadence Atchinson, or Bethany Kenyon to be granted access to the learning content.

Please share this resource with your colleagues and let us know at the library how we can help you and your students.

Thanks,

Bethany Kenyon
