UNE Library Services – Expanding Our Worldview

UNE Library Services invites the UNE community to join us as we explore resources which help to expand our points of view. UNE faculty, students, and staff have access to many titles which explore the history of, and help us to unpack the issues surrounding, U.S. race relations. Now is the time!

More equity and diversity resources will be highlighted soon, but the library's Antiracism Reading List is a great place to start for either course planning or personal summer reading.

The items on this list are available electronically, but note that the libraries are also beginning to offer Physical Book Mail Delivery services.

Please share this resource with your colleagues and let us know how we can help you and your students.

Thanks,

Bethany Kenyon
