UNE Library Services – September 2020

New Health Podcasts Available:

McGraw Hill's Case Files Collection has now introduced over 30 downloadable podcasts, providing health sciences students with an engaging discussion emphasizing key concepts in an easily consumable format.

Interlibrary Loan Update:

UNE Library Services' Interlibrary Loan Coordinator, Brenda Austin, who has helped connect the UNE community with resources for 30 years, will retire at the end of September. Join us in wishing her well!

I will be running our interlibrary loan services, starting October 1st, until we have a new team member in the role. Please send interlibrary loan questions to libraryill@une.edu or to me directly at bkenyon@une.edu.

Library Instruction:

Now, more than ever, it is crucial that students understand how to find resources and materials at library.une.edu! Please consider setting up a library user instruction session for your students. Format is flexible: Zoom, pre-recorded subject specific instruction, one-on-one research meetings with students (for smaller classes), flipped classroom handouts with embedded links & videos, and in-person classroom visits when possible.

Please share this resource with your colleagues and let us know how we can help you and your students.

Thanks,

Bethany Kenyon
