UNE Library Services: New and Notable

A new year brings a new chance to use fresh and reminder-worthy resources from the library.

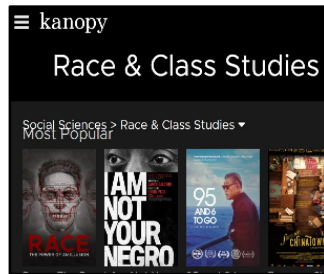

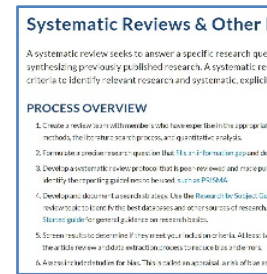

| RACE AND CLASS VIDEOS | COMMUNITY EQUITY & DIVERSITY | HOW TO SPOT FAKE NEWS | SYSTEMATIC REVIEWS |

Library Resources include a wide array of curriculum-enhancing and extracurricular materials in support of community, equity, and diversity expansion. Kanopy is one example, offering a catalog of race and class studies video content; the UNE Community, Equity, and Diversity Library Resource Initiative (CEDLRI) is another. (Kanopy can be found in our databases list; CEDLRIis reached from our homepage Library Resources menu.)

Our How to Spot Fake News source evaluation guide is highly visited and very timely. Systematic Reviews & Other Review Types is our newly available guide, useful in particular for students and faculty tasked with review work. Both resources can be found under our homepage Research Help menu.

A quick reminder that Theses and Dissertations is now a search tab in the Library Services home page main search box. This searches Dissertations and Theses Global (ProQuest) and other T&D resources, including DUNE: DigitalUNE.

Please share these resources with your colleagues and let us know at the library how we can help you and your students.

Thanks,
