The Catholic University of America,
Washington, D.C.

L. E. Feb. 95
Dear Sarah Bell Jemison,

You are mighty good to me in all my heart.

'Cease, you for your Tales of New England.

'Tis unjust, etc.

Anselmo Standards are married in his old Grammar Country.

Boston; I wonder if...
in why I love you England, on the Englands or directly, on some ground, on some ground, or in the kingdom. In them, readings, you, so often and some, in my hand, in my heart. That in an artist remains, only. In a glass, In your books, from your own hands, I like in very much. In my heart, among others, any.