Miss Sarah Orne Jewett

148 Charles St

Boston

Mass
The music — the thing that carries the poet along — is not always there. If it were shortened, the weaker — more difficult passages left out, it would join the other more forces set free their beautiful symphonies. It does not quite lose such