

The opposite of rhetoric

Jack Lewis

I have been training my entire adult life for moments like this and despite actual decades of education and sweat and tears of many capable and caring people your husbandfather is still dead on the floor of your living room and I'm reallyreallyreallysorry that there isn't a single

damned

thing

I can do about that.