Class of 1995...The Beat and the Bigness
People are unreasonable, illogical and self-centered.
Love them anyway.
If you do good, people will accuse you of selfish ulterior motives.
Do good anyway.
If you are successful, you win false friends and true enemies.
Succeed anyway.
The good you do today will be forgotten tomorrow.
Do good anyway.
Honesty and frankness make you vulnerable.
Be honest and frank anyway.
People favor underdogs but only follow top dogs.
Fight for some underdogs anyway.
What you spend years building may be destroyed overnight.
Build anyway.
People really need help, but may attack if you give it.
Help people anyway.
The world may take the best you've got.
Give your best anyway!

No one has ever seen God, but if we love, we do know that God exists, and that we love God.

I want to wish the senior class the best of luck in pursuit of wisdom & happiness. I'll see you all at reunion!

I'd like to thank my dearest friends for sharing in the many experiences that have led me to where I am, and especially those who have helped me discover what I know is true & good about living every day.

Thanks to my professors who gave me strength & wisdom - these are priceless gifts!

Love & thanks to my entire family for support & encouragement throughout my whole life. Especially Mom, Dad, and Andrea.

~ Promises ~

"Pooh promise you won't forget about me ever, not even when I'm a hundred. Pooh thought for a little.

"How old shall I be then?"

"Ninety-nine." Pooh nodded.

"I promise he said"

~ Home at Pooh Corner ~
I have made all sorts of acquaintances, but have as yet found no one I really like. I do not know what attraction I possess for people, so many of them like me, and attach themselves to me; and then I feel sorry when the road we go together takes us only a short distance. If you ask what the people here are like, I must answer, "Much the same as everywhere." The human race does not vary. Most people work the greater part of their time for a mere living; and the little freedom which remains to them so troubles them that they use every means of getting rid of it. Oh, the destiny of man!

What strange beings they are, whose thoughts are completely occupied with etiquette and ceremony, who for years devote all their mental and physical energies to the task of getting one step ahead, and of trying to move up one place at the table! Not that they have nothing else to do; on the contrary, as they go to infinite trouble for such petty trifles, they have no time for more important matters.

I examine my own life and there find a world, but a world rather of imagination and dim desires, than of distinctness and living power. Everything swims before my senses, and I smile and dream my way through the world.

Me & Sis
A scholar of business, me of Nursing. Two of a kind (minus the tan) but unique in essence. Nursing: my path in life!
Very special thanks to my whole family, especially Dad, Mom, Dick, G.R.T., firewater, 8 a.m. classes, hangovers, prof. T.E., no soccer training. LOVED IT! Bridgewater State road trip, Lite Ice, A.P. for U.N.E. Cribbage for cake, Tropical Guppy, standing in the bucket at Virginia Tech Spring Training, 1. Rhode Island, 2. St. John's (OK), no beer money, playing ball, posters, baseball sticks on the green, lots of beer games. Thank you, to my fellow graduates, especially my cousin Jocelyn, Gary, LeAnn, and K.J. - "you know, thanks for everything. You have done over the last four years.

I would like to say that these have been some of the most enjoyable times of my life. So, to all those who have touched me over the years, I say to you, "THANKS!" Especially to my cousin Scott, who has helped me through these past four years. Well Scott we have finally made it. To all those I must leave behind, I wish well and luck, you'll need as did I. Once again, thank you all!

Love,

Really hate to disappoint all of you, but the truth of us were just good friends.

Thank you “Buck & Kath”! AKA Mom & Dad

It may have taken me 5 years, but as I look back it was well worth it.
In life, there are things that change, and I have for a reason, for the last four years. Things happen and how to achieve it.

To my significant other...Thanks for your support! I love you!

This bridge will only take you halfway there to those mysterious lands you long to see: Through gypsy camps and swirling arab fairs, And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.

So come and walk a while with me and share The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known. This bridge will only take you halfway there— The last few steps you have to take alone.

If I can stop one heart from breaking,

Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again
I shall not live

I could fill a hundred pages with all the memories I have...

How do I say goodbye
to what we had
The good times
that made us laugh
always come back

I thought we'd get to see forever
but forever's gone away
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday

I don't know where the road
is going to lead
All I know is where we've been
and what we've been through

If we get to see tomorrow
I hope it's worth all the pain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday

And I'll take
with me the memories
to be my sunshine
after the rain
It's so hard to say goodbye to yesterday

It's so hard to believe that it has been four years since that very hot day in August 1991. We have experienced so much:

Remember those endless clinic days - and my patient who didn't have a pulse
Remember, the bottom CD is the one that will play
Remember when Linnell 1st had LFS (aka: Lead-foot syndrome)
Remember Ice Caps
Remember Bob Marley and all of those comedy nights
Remember Proctor Roof
Remember to be careful of the furniture in Ginn lounge - you may fall through
Remember the bacon stuck to the ceiling

There are so many memories that I couldn't possibly fit them on one page. So, to sign off I would like to thank all of the people who made my college experience so memorable.
